FACULTY SENATE RESOLUTION REGARDING TOEFL SCORE REQUIREMENTS

WHEREAS, on February 16, 2011, the Faculty Senate approved an increase in the TOEFL score requirement for fall 2013 international undergraduate applicants (including transfer students) from 90 to 100; and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate Committee on Undergraduate Education's (FSCUE's) Subcommittee on Admission and Aid (the "Admissions Committee") at its November 5, 2012 meeting recommended maintaining the TOEFL score requirement of 90 (the "Recommendation"); and

WHEREAS, at its November 27, 2012 meeting, FSCUE endorsed the Recommendation; and

WHEREAS, on January 14, 2013, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee voted that the Recommendation should be placed on the agenda for consideration by the Faculty Senate at its January 24, 2013 meeting;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THAT the TOEFL score requirement for international undergraduate applicants and transfer students shall remain at the current level of 90 and continuing efforts will be made to increase the TOEFL score without sacrificing international admission goals. The Admissions Committee will revisit this [question] annually( )4( )9( )4( )6( )4(64 5(s(o)17(45RID 22>BDC BT1 0 11(n)5(g)] TJETBT512(s)3(.)2( )-65.
