

Title: Hazardous Materials Recall Policy

Approved by: Environmental Health and Safety

Effective Date: 4/19/2019

Responsible Official: Environmental Health and Safety

Responsible University Office: Environmental Health and Safety This Policy:

The recall and use of a material is expressly determined to be defective, the community methods for return and disposal of these materials

materials or expired through proper Federal, State, and Local regulatory in which the material is rendered harmless to the community

Procedures:

Communication:

When a recall is received from a manufacturer, the recall may not be directly reported to EHS and is usually communicated to the purchaser of the material.