CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY PLAN FOR INTERNATIONALIZATION PHASE II, Draft 7 April 8, 2015

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

After successfully achieving many of the recommendations set forth in the initial Plan for Internationalization, the Center for International Affairs developed Phase II, a continuation and expansion of the original plan (Phase II). Phase II builds on the accomplishments of the initial Plan for Internationalization and the concepts expressed in the new Case Western Reserve University (CWRU) strategic plan: Think Beyond the Possible. Four strategic objectives are identified in Phase II.

- 1. Continue to develop the structure and resources to empow and stated fin b2d Supp dev shop layer and stated from hips and support for expanding interpretable and stated from the program of the structure and resources to empow and stated from hips and stated from the program of the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and resources to empow and stated from the structure and stated fr
 - 3. O aduate indergraduate students who demonstrate a min global city a ship.
 - 4. Main ain and expand a communication infrastructure to internationalization.
 - 5. Utilize technology to centralize information about interron campus to enable better collaboration.
 - 6. Collaborate with existing university structures to identify various international initiatives.
 - 7. Engage international alumni so that they become more of

The full Phase II document provides a detailed explanation of the developing Phase II, and the context and structure of Phase II, a metrics for each recommendation.

II. INTRODUCTION AND BACKG

