Domestic Partners are defined as two individuals of the same or opposite sex:

1. who are both 18 years of age or older and have the capacity to enter into a contract; and
2. who are involved in an exclusive, long-term and committed relationship; and
3. who have resided together in a common household continuously for at least six (6) consecutive months; and
4. who intend to reside together indefinitely; and
5. who are not related by blood to a degree of closeness which would prohibit legal marriage in the State in which the partners legally reside; and
6. who have agreed to be jointly responsible for each other's welfare, financial obligations, and basic living expenses, including food, shelter, and health care expenses; and
7. who are not married, who are not currently involved in any other domestic partnership, and who have not been involved in any other domestic partnership or marriage for the last twelve (12) months, unless that partnership or marriage ended because of death.

CERTIFICATION OF DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIP

I, as an employee of Case, hereby certify that the above-names person and I meet all the eligibility requirements as “Domestic Partners” as defined above.

I understand all of the following:

- 1) domestic partners are eligible for all university benefits when the insurance carriers or benefit provider permits benefits to be extended to domestic partners;
- 2) non-employee domestic partners and dependent children of domestic partners are eligible to tuition waiver benefits, to the same extent and subject to the same rules and eligibility requirements as are applicable to employees.
- 3) under federal and state law, benefit coverage of the non-employee domestic partner and his/her children, including tuition waiver benefits, may result in taxable income to the employee and is subject to income tax withholding and applicable payroll taxes;
- 4) coverage for non-employee domestic partners may only be activated during open enrollment and is effective for one calendar year. Coverage may begin during the calendar year only if a qualifying change in family or job status occurs during that calendar year. Please see Benefits Overview and Enrollment Guide.
- 5) domestic partners are not eligible for continuing coverage under COBRA;
- 6) the employee must give written notice to Human Resources within thirty (30) days of any change of circumstances attested to in this Affidavit or of the termination of the domestic partnership, and file an amendment to the Affidavit or a termination of the Affidavit form;
- 7) another Affidavit of Domestic Partnership cannot be filed until twelve (12) months after a statement or termination of the previous partnership has been filed with Human Resources, unless that domestic partnership ended because of death;
- 8) falsely certifying eligibility for domestic partner benefits or failing to inform Case if the domestic partnership ceases to meet eligibility requirements in any respect will result in disciplinary action against the 0 Tw(HbShd-469.9(falsely certifying .awpect wrtner btioi.Pyling tot, I
