Laura E. McNally-Levine
Professor of Law - Attorney at Law -

Health Law
o Develop materials for and te x LAW Lead, Leadership Curriculum (August 2014 to present) o Executive coach for a select group of first-year students enrolled in the course. Provided individual coaching sessions to students, reviewed and graded written work connected to coaching sessions.

x Externship Liaison (July 2007 - Present) o Faculty Supervisor for semester-long externships. Recent externship locations include the Cleveland Housing Court, the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland, and University Hospitals.
  o Meet with externs throughout the semester, review journals and time reports.

x Basic Mediation Training Course (Fall and Spring semesters, 2008-2013) o The goal of the course is to expose students to the mediation process from the perspective of the mediator. The course employs multiple modalities to teach these concepts including lecture, class discussion, and role play, for all the phases of a mediation.
  o Develop course materials and mediation exercises and teach the classroom component of the course.

x Civil Litigation and Mediation Clinic (July 2005 - June 2007) o Taught year-long in-house live-client clinical course.
  o Provided supervision of students enrolled in the Civil Litigation and Mediation Clinic. Interns represented clients in civil actions regarding consumer law, housing and predatory lending.
  o Coordinated mediation pilot project at the Cleveland Heights Municipal Court. Supervised student interns from the Civil Litigation and Mediation Clinic during small claims mediation sessions at the court.
  o Developed materials for and taught weekly classroom component

FELLOWSHIPS

x Learning Fellow, University Center for Innovation in Teaching and Education (Spring 2009) x Participant, Faculty Leadership Workshop on Research and Scholarship (2010) x   Provided direct supervision of

U

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- x The Salvation Army, Syracuse Area Services
  - o On-site Coordinator, Annual Christmas Food and Gift Distribution (2005-present)
  - o Can-Do Award Recipient (2011)
- x