

CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
COMMITTEE ON STUDENTS
CHARGE:

The Committee on Students (COS) is a standing committee of the Faculty of Medicine charged with the responsibility of reviewing the total performance of all students in the School of Medicine. By approval of this charge, the Faculty of Medicine delegates to the COS the authority for decisions to its Review Committee (MSPRC), the review of the CCLCM. Each year, the MSPRC will report on promotion and remediation. In the following year, the Chair of the MSPRC will report at the next scheduled COS meeting, rather than at the next possible for either approving or not approving. If the COS does not approve a decision of the MSPRC, an alternative action.

Review of a student's total performance. The COS will review final grades and evaluations, but also the overall performance of the student. Medical school education entails more than the acquisition of knowledge as well as the demonstration of professional skills, sensitivity, sense of responsibility, and respect for patients, colleagues, and coworkers. The COS will review disciplinary matters involving medical students and will recommend procedures as described in the Case Western Reserve University. Meetings will be held at regular intervals according to a schedule set by the Faculty of Medicine. Meetings may be called by the chair. The chair will be considered a quorum and official minutes will be taken. A positive or negative vote of a simple majority of the members may be terminated by the chair if the meeting is not held during an academic year.

The chair will be responsible for and arranging for its delivery to all members. The secretary will be responsible for the minutes of each meeting will be distributed at each meeting. Presentation of specific items of business. Presentation of specific items will be the responsibility of the deans of Reasonable efforts will be made to contact students whose individual performance is to be reviewed so that the individual may have the opportunity to present pertinent information. All members, voting and non-voting, may participate in discussions. All proceedings of the COS are strictly confidential and should not be discussed by members with non-members. All communications concerning actions of the COS will come through the dean of student affairs or the dean's designate. Members are expected to consider carefully whether or not their personal relationship with a student might impair their objectivity such that they should absent themselves

-

The term of office of the elected members is five years. Elections will be staggered so that at least one member will be replaced or re-elected each year. An elected member resigning during a term of office shall be replaced by appointment made by the chair of the Faculty Council; an appointed member resigning during a term of office shall be replaced by appointment made by the dean or the dean's designee.

Approved by vote of the Faculty Council November 16, 2015