

Updated Bulletin

CUGH2022, 'Healthy People, Healthy Planet, Social Justice', is fast approaching, and we have a stellar roster of speakers and dynamic topics. Register now and take advantage of our lowest registration rates which end on January 31st. It is virtual and open to all. We would be immensely grateful if you would share this flyer with your networks and encourage colleagues to attend the conference, which takes place Mar. 28th-Apr. 1st. Satellite sessions are between March 21st-25th.

In this bulletin you will see the

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CUGH 2022 LEADERSHIP AWARDEES

The CUGH Distinguished Leader Award:

Harriet Mayanja-Kizza , MBBS, MMed, PhD, Professor of Medicine, College of Health Sciences, Makerere University

James Tielsch , PhD, MHSc, Chair of the Department of Global Health, George Washington University

The CUGH Dr. Thomas Hall-Dr. Nelson Sewankambo Mid-Career Leadership Award:

Ashti Doobay Persaud , MD, Co-Director, Institute for Global Health Center for Global Health Education, Northwestern University, USA

Rachel T. Idowu , MD, MPH, Country Director, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Liberia

Nadia Sam-Agudu , MD, Associate Professor of Pediatrics and International Medical Technical Advisor, Institute of Human Virology and Department of Pediatrics, University of Maryland School of Medicine, Senior Technical Advisor for Pediatric and Adolescent HIV, Institute of Human Virology Nigeria

The CUGH Dr. Judy Wasserheit Young Leader Award:

Dale Barnhart , ScD, Global Health Equity Research Fellow, Harvard Medical School, USA

John Ebong , MBBS, President, Health Compass Initiative, Nigeria

Anusha Jayaram , Global Surgery Research Associate, Program in Global Surgery and Social Change, Harvard Medical School, USA

Siddhesh Zadey , MSc-GH, Research Aid Sr., Division of Surgical Sciences, Duke University, USA

Leah Peer , Fellow, Anne C. Carter Global Health Fellowship, American Medical Women's Association, USA