MSN and DNP Programs

POLICY:!A grade of "I" (Incomplete) in a course is awarded when a student is meeting expectations in that course, is earning a passing grade, and due to extenuating circumstances is unable to complete a portion of the work on time for grade submission. This must be pre-arranged with course faculty, before the date on which grades are due. If a student receives a grade of "I" they have until the 11th week of the following semester to complete the outstanding work. In this case the "I" will convert to the grade earned. If a student does not complete the outstanding work by the 11th week of the following semester, in accordance with University policy, the grade will be converted to a failing grade ("F"
