

Office of University Marketing and Communication
10900 Euclid Avenue • Cleveland, Ohio 44106-7017
Phone 216 368-4440 • Fax 216 368-3546 • www.case.edu

April 22, 2005

Contact: Laura Massie
(216) 368-4442
laura.massie@case.edu

MANDEL SCHOOL OF APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCES PROFESSOR AWARDED FOR SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTIONS TO SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION

CLEVELAND - Merl C. "Terry" Hokenstad, the Ralph S. and Dorothy P. Schmitt Professor at the Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences at Case Western Reserve University, received the 2004 Katherine Kendall Award from the International Association of Schools of Social Work (IASSW) to acknowledge significant contributions to the development of social work education at the international level. Hokenstad, who also serves as a professor of international health at the Case School of Medicine, was presented the award at the Global Social Work Congress in Adelaide, Australia earlier this month.

The Katherine A. Kendall Award was introduced in 1992 to honor the IASSW Honorary President, Katherine A. Kendall. She has played a significant role in promoting excellence in social work education and in the expansion of social work internationally.

"I am proud that Terry Hokenstad is being honored by IASSW with the prestigious Katherine Kendall Award," said Grover C. Gilmore, dean of the Mandel School. "Terry's distinguished career as a social work educator and innovator is unparalleled. The Mandel School is fortunate and honored to have -more-

Mandel professor receives prestigious award

Add 1

and Sweden, as well as the U.S. in the establishment and evaluation of doctoral programs in social policy and social work.

Hokenstad has also served as a Fulbright research scholar at the Institute of Applied Social Research in Oslo, Norway; as a visiting scholar at the National Institute of Social Work in London; and as a senior Fulbright lecturer at Stockholm University in Sweden. He taught and performed research as a Canterbury fellow at the University of Canterbury in New Zealand, and as an academic visitor to the London School of Economics. He has led delegations of social workers and social work educators to China, Cuba, Japan, Russia and South Africa.

Hokenstad received his doctoral degree from Brandeis University's Florence Heller Graduate School for Advanced Studies in Social Welfare.

Kendall, 94, has been closely identified with major development in social work education, over the past 40 years. Kendall's leadership in international social work education led to the formation of regional organizations within the IASSW, acknowledging the importance of indigenous curriculum development and the diversity of local contexts.

The only other American recipient of this award was Herman Stein, a former dean and the John Reynolds Harkness Professor Emeritus of Social Administration at the Mandel School, former Case provost and holder of the title University Professor.

###

About Case Western Reserve University

Case is among the nation's leading research institutions. Founded in 1826 and shaped by the unique merger of the Case Institute of Technology and Western Reserve University, Case is distinguished by its strengths in education, research, service, and experiential learning. Located in Cleveland, Case offers nationally recognized programs in the Arts and Sciences, Dentistry, Engineering, Law, Management, Medicine, Nursing, and Social Sciences. The Commission on Presidential Debates selected Case to host the U.S. vice presidential debate on October 5, 2004. <http://www.case.edu>.